

Quantum Physics IV: We Are All Connected

Bev Robinson

INTRODUCTION

The Trinity, God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are connected in complete alignment. They are unified and yet they have their distinct differences. They are One God. This isn't even grammatically correct. How can it be they are separate and yet they are One? It is something hard to get your mind around, but as difficult as it is to understand nevertheless it is reality. What is ahead in this article is also difficult to understand, but I trust can be understood. The illustration at the end helps me to understand I pray it helps you. Father, Son and Holy Spirit's connection has set the pattern for all of creation.

We as people too are connected. We may not be completely aware of it but nevertheless it is true. Quantum physics has proven, while everything may look solid and separate, all matter is in fact connected within a universal field of energy. This too is a hard thing for us to wrap our mind around. We look like we are separate in time and space and yet we are connected. This connectedness is called "entanglement." This all happened at the time of creation, the Big Bang.

As with the Trinity, we see another example of connection in the universe which is in the physical body. Just as the song of old says, the hip bone connected to the knee bone, the knee bone connected to the leg bone etc. Each part is individual and yet all connected.

The Bible tells us that we in the Church are connected as the "Body of Christ" In fact we have a double connection or double bond, we are born and yet we are born again. We also have a connection to the lost world as shown in these following. Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 12:25-27 (AMP) So that there should be no division or discord or lack of adaptation [of the parts of the body to each other], but the members all alike should have a mutual interest in and care for one another. ²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the parts [share] the suffering; if one member is honored, all the members [share in] the enjoyment of it. ²⁷ Now you [collectively] are Christ's body and [individually] you are members of it, each part severally and distinct [each with his own place and function].

Matt 28:18-20 (NASB) "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

The following story is told to illustrate how God orchestrates His creation. He connects. His love is a powerful energy drawing people to Himself. He goes beyond time and space. He goes to beyond what we can see to connect us to each other and to Him.

ILLUSTRATION

Years ago Ras and I were teaching on the family in a church in Alvin TX. We were staying in a motel nearby and were having breakfast in the restaurant attached to the motel. After Ras finished eating he went back to the room and I continued to prepare for teaching. When I got up I glanced at a man and woman sitting in the booth behind me. The man had tears in his eyes.

Without even thinking, out of my mouth came, "You are in trouble aren't you?" He nodded and I said, "My husband and I know where you can get some help and if you will follow us we can help." He simply said, "OK." I went to the room and excitedly told Ras what had happened. We prayed that the man and woman would follow us. The pastor picked us up to take us to the Church and the couple was waiting in a new gold Cadillac in the front of the motel when we drove out. It was pouring down buckets of rain. I rolled down the window enough to crook a finger for them to follow us. We related to the pastor what had happened. He got so excited and in the driving rain he missed the turn off to the Church. So we were driving around and around back on and off the interstate with the couple right behind us.

In the parking lot, running through the rain the man yelled, "I don't want to sit on the front row" We walked in late, the Church was packed and there was no place else for them to sit but on the front row.

After we taught and on the way to the pastor's study the man told us we weren't going to like what a predicament he was in. We told him we had heard just about everything a marriage you could go through. We still hadn't even exchanged names.

We found out the woman he was with was not his wife. He and his wife were separated and the woman was someone he worked with. He told us he wanted to be restored to his wife and family. He was a Christian and prayed that morning for God to send him some help. When he heard us talking in the restaurant he knew God had answered his prayer. We told him to call his wife and tell her the whole story and see if she would meet with us the next day.

The next morning after Ras had started preaching this man walked in with his beautiful wife with two beautiful young daughters all dressed to perfection. His wife accepted Christ when the invitation was given. We met with them after Church and led them in forgiveness, and after some more instruction we blessed them to start anew.

God had made powerful connections. It was a set up, the place, the time, the people, and the very atmosphere.

He has Godly connections all the time. Don't miss them.
